

| | |
|-------|---|
| 09:15 | Welcome & Introduction |
| 09:30 | Aided Corticals: What are they and why should we perform them? |
| 10:15 | Getting your setup right: Hardware, stimulus options and the testing environment This session will include a physical demonstration of how to set up the hardware and perform soundfield analysis |
| 11:15 | Comfort Break |
| | The aided cortical patient: Patient preparation, managing the appointment and achieving the optimum patient state. |
| 12:30 | Lunch |
| 13:15 | Waveform interpretation: How to determine if a response is present |
| 14:00 | Practical demonstration Hands-on session |
| 14:45 | Comfort Break |
| 15:00 | Testing strategy: Clinical decision making. This session will include interactive case studies and strategies for hearing aid management |
| 16:15 | Finish / Close |